My name is John B. Wetstone, I am an American who has been living in Munich since 1978.

Originally, I travelled to Europe to study the English painter, J.M.W. Turner. Inevitably, the awe-inspiring landscape of Bavaria captured my heart and soul. Munich's fascinating history and distinct cultural lifestyle played no small part in convincing me this was the place I wished to call home. I now take great pleasure in sharing with my guests that which has held me here so many years, along with the knowledge and experience I have gained. Together, we will visit southern Germany's most famous sites including treasures that are off the beaten path. You will experience Bavaria through the eyes of an insider. My training as a landscape artist, along with my expertise on Bavaria, will provide you with an unparalleled travel experience. Discover the wonderful world of Bavaria, absorb the visions and make them your own! Join me in planning your remarkable vacation in Bavaria. Making your stay here one you will always remember.

My speciality is planning each tour as a personalized tour according to the individual wishes of each guest. Being your driver, guide and translator, I will be there to attend to all your needs, and answer questions. I prefer that you tell me your interests so I may tailor the tour to your taste. All my guests are offered red carpet door-to-door service. Getting away from the large group tours means that you will have more freedom to see and do what you want in a shorter period of time. You will enjoy more high quality vacation time to relax, sight see and take photographs. Included is transport for up to four people in a comfortable car, larger groups up to eight individuals can also be accommodated. Both long and short Munich City Tours are offered by car on a year round basis.

I'll take you to Neuschwanstein, King Ludwig's Castles, the Alps, nearby lakes, famous and the little known Baroque & Rococo churches, Monasteries, Christmas markets, medieval cities, historical sites, festivals, pageants, and breathtaking spectacular views.
